About Mark Bradford: Scorched Earth: Comprising a suite of new paintings, a multimedia installation, and a major painting on the Lobby wall, Scorched Earth is an examination of the moment and afterlife of the 1992 Los Angeles uprisings, and the parallels between the early years of the AIDS crisis and the recent Ebola outbreak in the United States. Mark Bradford: Scorched Earth is the artist's first solo museum exhibition in Los Angeles, where he lives and works. The exhibition is organized by Hammer chief curator Connie Butler with Jamillah James, assistant curator.

About Perfect Likeness: Photography and Composition: Perfect Likeness explores a variety of strategies used by contemporary photographers—involving careful attention to detail and highly choreographed arrangements. Artists featured in the exhibition take full responsibility for every detail of an image, offering a powerful alternative to the tradition of street photography, which values spontaneity and chance. This exhibition is organized by Russell Ferguson, professor in the Department of Art, University of California, Los Angeles and adjunct curator at the Hammer Museum. The curatorial associate for the exhibition is Emily Gonzalez-Jarrett.

Hammer Kids is made possible through the generosity of the Anthony & Jeanne Pritzker Family Foundation.

Hammer Kids has also received funding from supporters and friends of the Hammer Museum's Kids' Art Museum Project (K.A.M.P.), an annual family fundraiser. Additional support has been provided by Resnick Foundation, The Rosalinde and Arthur Gilbert Foundation, the Elizabeth Bixby Janeway Foundation, and the Art4Moore Fund of the Tides Foundation.
