On Sunday, May 21, 2017, the Hammer Museum will host its eighth annual family fundraiser K.A.M.P. (Kids’ Art Museum Project), an event imagined by artists for children of all ages. K.A.M.P.’s supporters make possible that all of the Hammer’s year-round kids and family programming is available for free, serving over 60,000 children and their families annually. The Museum’s growing Hammer Kids programming includes weekly offerings such as family workshops, Family Day in the fall, and Family Flicks, as well as Family Gallery Guides and our groundbreaking Classroom-in-Residence education initiative.

K.A.M.P. 2016 was a huge success and we anticipate nearly 1,000 guests to attend this spring. Past participating artists include: Edgar Arceneaux, Walead Beshty, Mark Grotjahn, Julian Hoeber, Elliott Hundley, Tala Madani, Catherine Opie, Laura Owens, Jon Pylypchuk, Analia Saban, and Frances Stark.

The K.A.M.P. Committee is integral to making K.A.M.P. the creative, engaging, and successful event it has become. The Museum relies on the generosity of its K.A.M.P. Committee members to provide important support for its innovative family programming that serves thousands of children each year.

K.A.M.P. Committee members have the opportunity to participate in different aspects of the event, including meeting and working with artists who lead the workshops, designing décor, gathering supplies, and securing readers and entertainment. The K.A.M.P. Committee is a great way to engage with artists, Hammer Museum curators and parents from all over L.A.
