VAPAE

Join us for a FREE professional development program for K-12 teachers, administrators, and teaching artists.

THE PERSONAL IS POLITICAL

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2017
8:30AM – 12:30PM

How is identity formed? In what ways is identity shaped by the systems and forces of our world?

In this half-day workshop, you will:

- Explore the special exhibition Jimmie Durham: At the Center of the World and the newly reinstalled Armand Hammer Collection.
- Learn strategies for facilitating inquiry-based discussions about works of art with your students.
- Practice approaches for guiding movement and artmaking activities in your classroom.
- Work with other educators to develop ideas for incorporating new teaching strategies into your teaching practice.

Capacity is limited and available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Please RSVP with your name, school, and grade level to academicprograms@hammer.ucla.edu

This workshop is organized by the Hammer Museum and the Visual and Performing Arts Education Program (VAPAE) in the UCLA School of the Arts and Architecture.
